LOTS OF SMOKE

But Little Fire Thursday At The Home Of Col. Ike Hart.

For the first time in several days a fire department was called out Thursday afternoon. The alarm was turned in from the home of Col. Ike Hart about half-past 10 o'clock and the department made a hasty respond, but put out the fire with buckets of water without attaching the hose.

Some tinner had been working on the metal roof and when they went home to dinner they left their fire pot on the roof. During dinner hour the wind blew the fire in the pot so strong that the heat became so great that the wooden sheeting under the tin began to burn. There was a great deal of smoke in the upper part of the building but the fire had not made much headway. The loss is insignificant.

Customhouse officials at New York seized gowns and jewels valued at $18,000 from Misses Agnes Mangels and Agnes Tillman, of San Francisco.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Arthur M. Henry And Little Son Were Knocked Down Wednesday.

THE BOY SOON RECOVERED,

But Col. Henry Was Unconscious For Two Hours.

During the rain, electric and hail storm that passed over a part of the county Wednesday afternoon about 5:30, Arthur M. Henry and his little son, Arthur, Jr., were knocked to earth by a lightning stroke. Col. Henry fell on his face and remained in that position until his son's recovery, who went to his father and found him apparently dead. The boy is about 12 years of age and he asserts that his father was not conscious when he got to him and blood was running from his nose. The boy gave the alarm and some negro men, who were working in a field near by, ran to Col. Henry and picked him up and carried him to the house. Physicians here were telephoned and they at once started in automobiles for Col. Henry's home, near Newstead. When they arrived they found Col. Henry unconscious and blood still running from his nose and they realized at once that the patient was in a critical condition. By proper treatment Col. Henry regained consciousness in about two hours after the physicians reached him, but one of them remained with him during the night. Thursday morning Col. Henry was considered out of danger and will be entirely well in a day or two.

The lightning stroke burned his left eye badly, his spine is affected and his nose and upper lip are cut, but whether it was done by the lightning or by his striking a hard substance when he fell, is not known.

Col. Henry and his son saw the rain cloud coming and went out together to drive some young turkeys to shelter. Both received the lightning stroke and fell. The boy recovered, but has no idea how many minutes he was unconscious.

Col. Henry is now in his 621 year, but is a man of vigor and health. He is one of the best known men in the county and is a progressive and successful farmer. He is a strong believer in education and is chairman of the county board of education. He attended the recent meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association in Louisville and his excellent paper read before the meeting received much complimentary comment. The paper was published in full in the Kentuckian. His host of friends everywhere hope that he may soon be out again.

Bolt Killed Five.

Particulars have been received of the killing of Harry Girard at Callinsville, Okla., last Monday. He was an employee of the Texas Pipe Line Co. constructing an oil station near Collinsville and Girard and nine other men were in a wagon on their way to work. A long straight shaft of lightning struck the wagon, killing five of the men and shocking four but not fatally and one, the driver, escaped unhurt. One of the horses was killed. Girard was a soldier of the Spanish-American war and as stated in last issue, his nearest relative was John Girard, an uncle, at Robinson, Ill.

Mrs. Lynn Penick and little son, Lynn Preston, have returned from Ekton.

GRADDY WINNER IN STRAW VOTE

Elimination Contest In Hopkins' Precincts Is Reached.

Madisonville, Ky., May 14.—The straw vote for Sheriff, taken in four precincts of this county, was taken by the three candidates, G. S. Williams, H. H. Graddy and W. H. O'Bryan, and resulted in a majority for Graddy. Williams received thirty-eight more than O'Bryan. The total vote cast in the four precincts was 658, which was 90 more votes than were cast in the presidential election in 1912.

The vote was taken by a house-to-house canvass by a friend of each candidate in each of the precincts.

The candidates agreed that the straw vote would be taken this way as the three men were from that section of the county.

There are now eleven candidates out for Sheriff in Hopkins county, and there will be probably another straw ballot, with some of the rest.

S. S. CONVENTION

At Crofton Was a Success In Every Way.

There was a large attendance at the annual meeting of the Christian County Sunday School Convention last Wednesday. There was a large attendance and renewed interest was manifested. A splendid program was carried out. Most of the department superintendents were chosen for another year. Mr. Douglas Graham, of Pembroke, one of the most active and efficient Presidents the Association has ever had, was elected for another year. Dr. F. M. Stites was elected Secretary. Renewed efforts for a most successful year was determined on.

FINE PROGRAM PREPARED

Entertainment Will Include Many Vocal and Instrumental Numbers By Noted Artists.

The entertainment at the Avalon next Tuesday night will well be worth the admission, 25c and 15c, to say nothing of the laudable cause for which it will be given. The program in part will consist of songs by the Hopkinsville male quartet, an appropriate vocal selection by Messrs. J. Mat Stirling and Frank and Bailey Waller, a duet by Misses Mary and Ruth Haydon, with instrumental accompaniments; and recitation by Miss Nannie Boyd, her selection being "Old Ben Johnson's Fiddle," by James Whitcomb Riley.

Prof. Ward will render several popular violin solos and there will be numerous numbers in solos, duets and quartets by the "Old Time Fiddlers," including Dr. G. W. Lackey, of Pembroke, and Joab Clark, Hart Wicks and Charles McGar, of Crofton. Mr. McGar's ten-year-old son, Clarence, will also render several violin selections, accompanied by his father, and this of itself will be worth the price of admission. Master McGar is a prodigy when it comes to "fiddling" and has won many prizes at contests in which he took part.

Mr. R. C. Lawson, of this city, has kindly consented to render a solo on the Octarina, his favorite instrument and he is also on the program for a violin solo. Many other catchy features will be introduced during the evening.

Tickets are now on sale at the Anderson-Fowler Drug Company, incorporated.

The entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock sharp. Remember, the net proceed will be used in defraying the expenses of Confederate Veterans, who are financially unable, in making the trip to and from the forth coming reunion at Chattanooga. Mr. T. L. Metcalfe has kindly donated the use of the Avalon for the purpose. Let everybody help make the entertainment a success.

RETURNED MISSIONARY

To India to Preach at South Union Church Sunday.

Rev. Hugh Gregory will preach next Sunday morning at South Union Baptist church.

Mr. Gregory has been doing missionary work in India for the past five years under the auspices of the Methodist church foreign board. He returned to the neighborhood of his youth about ten days ago and his old friends and acquaintances have requested him to preach on Sunday morning. Everybody is most cordially invited to hear him.

ASSERTS GIRL CAN WED ANY MAN SHE DESIRES

Theosophist Lecturer Explains Power of "Imaging."

Chicago, May 14.—Any girl can marry any man, if she holds his image in her mind.

Miss Julia K. Sommer, lecturer in scientific theosophy, told how the "imaging" should be done.

"A girl's image of the man she wishes to marry," said Miss Sommer, "should be definite. There must be an actual image of 'the man.' She must be decided about the color of his eyes and hair, the greatness of his social position and wealth and all of the details. Nothing should be vague nor hazy, for the image a girl holds of her future husband is the channel through which the force attracting him pours.

"If her idea of a man be vague, there is no channel, no vehicle for the 'force' to operate, and consequently she runs the risk of going husbandless. Her desires are scattered. She doesn't know what she wants.

"When you make an image and strengthen that image through desire and faith you will attract what you wish as a lodestone. The desire part adds strength and puts the force in your thoughts. It is the magnetic part, so, if one will and wishes strongly enough—and never ceases to desire subconsciously also—events will come about as desired.

"There must be clear images to create spiritual power."

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Were In Session Thursday and Friday, Sit Again Monday.

The city board of equalization, composed of B. W. Harned, W. J. Murphy and E. C. Radford, held their first meetings last Thursday and Friday and will meet again Monday. They will then adjourn until Wednesday, the 28th and sit three days to hear complaints of those who are dissatisfied with raises made on their property.

The first three days meeting of the board is devoted to an inspection of the valuation put on property by the city assessor, E. J. Schmidt. It is their duty to cut down over assessments or raise them according to their best judgment. Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock the board had made many changes each way, with a fair prospect of concluding their work early in the day Monday.

The total assessment for the year is $4,364,160 against $4,229,156 in 1912, or an increase of $134,994.

Declamatory Contest.

Lots of oratory will be uncoiled at the contest at the Christian church Monday night. A pleasing feature of the evening's program will be two songs by the male quartet. The quartet has selected two of its best songs, "Jonah and the Whale" and "The Old Well." About thirty young men will take part in the program and there will be a song, "Bring Back the Flag."

The names of the contestants and their selections are:

Robert Brumfield, "The Destiny of America"

Harry Saunders, "Pictures From Life"

Harold Weaver, "The Question of the Century."

Thomas Underwood, "A Threatening Cloud In Our Horizon."

Lyman Haydon, "The Defense of The Alamo."

Livingston Leavell, "The Ship Went Down"

These youths are students in the City High School and have bright minds and are numbered among the most studious pupils in the school.

Death of Mrs. Tuggle.

Mrs. Susan E. Tuggle, mother of Mrs. W. A. Heath and Mrs. J. S. Pursley, of this city, died May 10, at her home near Tuggleville, Trigg county. About a year ago she fell and broke her hip, and this, with other complications, caused her death. She was a member of the Christian church.

Tobacco Market.

The tobacco market this week was marked by no material changes from last, though the deliveries were somewhat lighter. The dry weather, which prevailed up to Wednesday afternoon, was the primary cause of an almost cessation of deliveries. Tobacco men say that there is still quite a lot of loose tobacco to be brought in, which has been delayed on account of farming operations.

The prices this week were fully up to those ruling last week, some hoghead samples running up to $15 per hundred.

Cordial Invitation to Become Real Members of the Redpath Family

We have chosen this community as the center for one of our chautauquas because we have faith in the enterprise, enthusiasm, and genuine chautauqua spirit of your citizens. We believe that the program we are offering this season eclipses any seven-day chautauqua program ever presented and likewise we have confidence in the ability of the people of this section to appreciate good things.

But not only do we invite you to attend, but to become real members of the big Redpath family, both by fellowship with your friends at the chautauqua grounds, and by making the acquaintance of the management, the superintendents, and of the live young college men who comprise the tent crews. Cordially yours,

HARRY P. HARRISON,
Pres. and Gen. Mgr. Redpath Chautauquas.

DEPARTING FROM OLD TRADITIONS

High Schools Aid In Developing Kentucky Fruit Growing.

60,000 TREES IN ONE PLOT.

Extensive Apple Growing Association Launched in Rowan and Hardin Counties—Movement Means Wider Use of Agriculture and Horticulture in Rural High Schools of the State.

The present year has seen a great impetus given to the fruit growing interests in Kentucky. Two different sections of the state have launched extensive co-operative apple growing associations. Both in Rowan and in Hardin counties the work has been helped and developed by our state department of agriculture. The department has furnished these counties with four standard varieties of apple trees free of charge and has also agreed to advise and train the members of the association in the care and general cultivation of the young trees and orchards during the next five years.

When the newly grafted young trees were received by the association in Rowan county they were divided among the members, to be placed in home gardens for the summer's growth. In Hardin county it was decided best to plant and cultivate the 60,000 young trees in one nursery plot. While plans were being discussed as to the best place and manner of caring for this nursery work the agricultural class of the county high school offered to take the trees and carry them through the summer until transplanting time next autumn.

Just next to the high school at Elizabethtown a fertile piece of sod land was broken and carefully prepared for the tender young stock. The day the planting took place was made something of a gain day for the students, especially as two experts from the state agricultural station, a government expert and a Louisville newspaper man came to inspect the work.

When the 60,000 trees, enough to set 1,500 acres, were stacked in the side yard they did not look as if they would require much time to plant. But after the bundles were opened and tiny bunches that could be held in one hand were seen to contain seventy-five or a hundred small trees the boys started first at the bundles and then at the well worked ground.

The splendid part of this work lies in the fact that the high school is stepping outside of the old, narrow, musty limits of educational tradition and is doing something of very definite value for the community. It will undoubtedly be of great benefit to the boys who do the work, their fathers, their friends and neighbors, in gaining a new viewpoint of what education will mean in the coming years.

The development of Kentucky's resources should be the first aim of every citizen, and when the enormous practical value of this work is realized it will give a great impetus to every form of agricultural endeavor.

If this work is a pronounced success this year it will naturally mean a wider use of agriculture and horticulture in our rural high schools over the whole state. When this comes it will also mean that each community will be willing to put much larger sums of money into its school than it has in the past. Let us hope that many high schools will follow this splendid start.

Woman Past Help.

Chandler, Okla.—In a letter from this place, Mrs. E. L. Flowers says: "I hardly know how to thank you for the good that Cardul has done me. Before I tried Cardul, I thought I was past help, but after taking it I was relieved at once, and gained at least 10 pounds. Everybody says I look so much better. I am still improving greatly." Many women are completely worn out and discouraged, on account of women's weakness. Are you? Have you not tried Cardul? It only needs a few doses to convince you that Cardul is just what you need. Try it today. It will cure your pains.

KILLED BY A MORO

Story of the Murder of Captain John Watson.

Was Slain in Philippines While Asleep. Lieut. Edmunds, His Companion, Who Has Narrow Escape, Says Spear Cut Spinal Cord.

The first detailed story of the killing of Capt. John Watson of the Eighth cavalry and the serious wounding of Lieut. Kinzie B. Edmunds by a wild moro at Sler lake on December 18, has just reached here, writes a Manila correspondent of the New York Sun. The news is contained in a letter from Lieutenant Edmunds himself, to his friend, Capt. A. A. King, at Fort McKinley.

The letter follows: "Hospital, Jolo, Jan. 17. "I suppose you would all like to hear what happened December 18, the night poor old Watson was killed, so I'll write down exactly what happened as I saw it, and you may pass it around if you wish.

"F and H troops camped the night of December 18-19 on the sea beach at Slet lake, about eighteen miles from Jolo. I was attached to H troop and living with Watson. It was a bright moonlight night, and we had a reasonably heavy guard on. Everything looked safe, but evidently there was a hole that was not corked. Not having made camp until three o'clock, we were tired. After a swim, went to bed at 9:30. Just before turning in Watson remarked his head was downhill. I said to put something under the legs of his bunk to raise it, but he said it was easier to turn around, so he slept with his head at the tent door.

"About 10:30 I woke up to see plainly in the entrance a Moro with a barong. He was jumping about, cutting to the right and left right merrily. His position brought him within easy range of both bunks. I let forth a yell that aroused the camp, and swung my legs in and to the head of the cot, ending by sitting on the head of the cot with my left side toward the door; then reached for my pistol and, of course, could not find it. I had taken it out of the holster and put it where I could not miss finding it, but some of the bed clothes must have covered it when I moved, and I had to keep my eyes on the Moro. Instead of coming into the tent, he stepped back out of sight for a second, then reappeared with a spear about ten feet long, the longest I have seen. With this he made two lunges at me, swinging far back on his rear foot, then driving forward with all his might. He was a busy little bee. The moon light shone on the tent and I was in the shadow. I managed to parry each thrust with my left arm, still trying for my pistol with my right hand; then he stepped back again and reappeared coming toward the tent with his barong.

"Two pistol shots sounded outside the tent (Saxon); he staggered but continued; then the crash of a shotgun (Wells); he was hurled back; I could see his legs fly over his head. He struggled to an elbow. Van Natta emptied his pistol into him, and he became a good Moro.

"Watson had not moved. I called him twice, then called for a light. They brought one. He had slight cuts, two through the spinal cord. I don't think he ever woke up; I don't suppose the whole business lasted over thirty seconds.

"Cut, right leg, half way between knee and ankle, six inches long, diagonal across bone and calf; cut, left knee, nearly parallel to leg and a little to the left of center through patella and into both bones to joint.

"Dear cut, left little finger, length of finger to bone; spear puncture, left elbow, slight. Can't account for this. Thought a parried both lunges to left. One went through my pillow.

"They sent for the launch that night and got me back to Jolo about three next day. Everything has healed except knee, which was infected. Drainage tubes, dressing every day, etc. It's slowly getting well. All but two of the tubes have been removed. There were six. An operation may be necessary after the wound closes to restore motion.

"Going to come north as soon as I am able to travel."

Remarkable Coincidence.

A strange coincidence that the man who dropped him into the stream two years ago and then rescued him should be the man to recover his body was witnessed at the River Nene, near the Town bridge at Peterborough, Northampton, (England), recently, when the body of a man named William Burrows, aged thirty, who had been missing since Christmas, was taken from the water. The body was found by a lighterman known by the nickname of "Banker," who recognized it as that of a man whom he rescued from drowning at the same spot under startling circumstances two years ago. On that occasion Burrows was going home at closing time, when he expressed a wish to die, as he had no money. One of his mates said, "I will give anybody sixpence who will drop him over the bridge." "Give me the sixpence," said "Banker," and having got it he forthwith picked Burrows up and held him over the parapet. "I can't swim," the victim gasped. "Then you'll be able to learn," said his tormentor and dropped him in the middle of the stream. He had sunk twice and was drowning when "Banker" swam to him and rescued him in the nick of time.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the price of a Weekly.

No Other Newspaper in the World Gives So Much at So Low a Price.

This is a time of great events and you will want the news accurately and promptly. The Democrats, for the first time in sixteen years, will have the Presidency and they will have the Presidency and they will also control both branches of Congress. The political news is sure to be of the most absorbing interest.

There is a great war in the Old World, and you may read of the extinction of the vast Turkish Empire in Europe, just as a few years ago you read how Spain lost her last foot of soil in America, after having ruled the empire of half the New World.

The World long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-a-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you now. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, markets, cartoons; in fact, everything that is to be found in a first class daily.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the Hopkinsville Kentuckian together for one year for $2.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

We are prepared to do all kinds of high-grade job printing. Try us.

KANSAS WOMAN WHO SUFFERED From Headache, Backache, Dizziness and Nervousness, Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lawrence, Kans.—"A year ago I was suffering from a number of ailments. I always had pain and was irregular. During the delay I suffered a great deal with headache, backache, dizziness, feverish spells, nervousness and bloating. I had been married
nearly three years.
I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound and now
I feel better than I have for years. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all who suffer as I did."—Mrs. M. ZEUNER, 1045 New Jersey Street, Lawrence, Kansas.

Montana Woman's Case.

Burns, Mont.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me of awful backache which I had suffered with for months. I was so weak I could hardly do my work and my head and eyes ached all the time. Your Compound helped me in many ways and is a great strengthener. I always recommend it to my friends and tell them what a grand medicine it is for women. You may use my name for the good of others."—Mrs.
JOHN FRANCIS, Burns, Montana.
The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

THERE IS MORE PROFIT IN YOUR DAIRY

than you ever realized unless you are using a Dairymaid cream separator.
The Dairymaid is the only successful chain drive machine on the American market today. The chain drive causes that smooth, vibrationless movement of the bowl which helps give the Dairy-maid its close skimming qualities.

The oiling facilities of the machine are excellent. Every part of the mechanism, except the bowl spindle neck bearing, is oiled from an oil bath in which the gears revolve. The neck bearing is self-aligning, non-adjustable, and trouble proof.

If you have been skimming by the old gravity method, or selling your milk, it is time to look for a bigger profit in your dairy.

When examining the Dairymaid separator notice these features:

- Chain drive, eliminating vibration.
- Power driven at the base.
- Six-piece frame.
- Efficient disk skimming device.
- Phosphor bronze bearings at all wearing points.
- Splash lubrication from oil bath.
- Trouble-proof bowl spindle neck bearings.

Brinly Leverless Cultivators

DON'T you want a cultivator that anybody can adjust or operate? Then buy a BRINLY LEVERLESS. It will do more work—better work—longer and easier and with one-fourth lighter draft than the ordinary cultivator. It is easy on the team, easy to handle, has fewer parts to wear and break, less for the operator to do. No levers, no springs. Always perfectly balanced. Simple in construction and will wear longer than the other cultivators. The first ones we sold in the county are still giving entire satisfaction. We have over 250 in use now. Some farms have five or six. There is no doubt about it—the BRINLY LEVERLESS is the cultivator for you.
Compare it and see how it is different.

Newspaper Comment on Redpath Chautauquas

From Towns Where These Chautauquas Were Held Last Year.

The Huntington, Ind., Herald said: "General consensus in Huntington is that the chautauqua has been of great benefit both educationally and as an entertainment."

The Niles, Mich., Daily Sun says: "It requires no words of ours to add to the volume of praise for the great chautauqua even-day course. Its value to the community as an educational and moral force cannot be measured in dollars and cents."

The Crawfordsville, Ind., Journal: "A canvass was made of the business portion of the city to-day, in which a large number of people competent to judge were asked their opinion of the chautauqua. Without exception, those interviewed said it was great."

The Maysville, Ky., Daily Independent: "The people of Maysville who have had a touch of the chautauqua this year have surely enjoyed it. Some of the lecturers alone were worth the price of a season ticket."

The Vincennes, Ind., Commercial: "This year's program has been wonderful."

The Kendallville, Ind., News-Sun: "Everyone is looking forward to next summer's week of pleasure."

The Goshen, Ind., News-Times "The chautauqua is proving a great success and promises to become a permanent institution in Goshen. It furnishes good wholesome entertainment and is a great educational and uplifting influence in the community."

NO PUZZLE TO THE MARRIED

Benedict Could Quickly Answer Question Which Appears to Worry High Judicial Tribunal.

Is a wife a "family?" Married men laughed right out loud when they learned that the court of appeals has been asked to answer this question, the lower courts being unable to agree in the matter. That the valuable time of the highest tribunal in the state should be taken up with a question which any benedict could answer with his eyes shut and both hands tied behind his back has provided no end of merriment for the matrimonial captives. "The wife is always the family," said one married martyr. "When there are no children she is the head of the family. If the judges of the court of appeals doubt whether one woman can constitute a family I'll send them a few assorted Christmas bills. They'll be convinced that my wife is a colony. If they wanted to give the court some real work why didn't they try to find out what part of the family the husband is?"

Big Chautauqua Week Attraction

THE BEN GREET PLAYERS

ONE of the greatest events on the forthcoming Chautauqua program this season will be the coming of the Ben Greet Players. A company of thirteen players, personally trained and coached by Ben Greet, are to appear here.

Mr. Greet is considered today one of the greatest living authorities on the English drama and is world famous for his remarkable productions of Shakespearean plays and old English comedies. He has been connected with the stage for thirty years and has taught many actors, perhaps more than any other man living today.

For twenty years Mr. Greet has been prominent in England for performances in which his splendid companies have acted each year in London, Cambridge, Stratford on Avon and other places in "Shakespeare's England."

Mr. Greet became well known in America several years ago through his presentation of the morality play "Everyman" under the management of Charles Frohman. This was the first time a play was presented in America by a professional company in the Elizabethan manner. This was later followed by a production of Shakespearean plays and classical comedies.

The company of thirteen Ben Greet Players who are to appear on the Chautauqua program here is the same company which made a transcontinental tour under Redpath management during the winter just past, playing to large crowds and mostly in the cities.

They will present "The Comedy of Errors" here, one of the best and most interesting of Shakespeare's productions. Special costumes will be worn in this production.

LEGENDARY ORIGIN OF TEA

Plant Grew From Eyelids of Buddhist Priest Who Slept During Meditation Hours.

Ten-diplers should remember the legendary origin of the tea plant.
Bodhi, a Buddhist priest, son of King, retired to Lo Yang, in order to pass five years in prayer and meditation. Like St. Anthony he was tempted and eventually he fell asleep during his long hours of meditation.
On awakening he cut off his offending eyelids that his eyes might never close again, and flung them on the ground, when they were immediately transformed into the first tea plant. It was for this reason believed that tea was a beverage sent from heaven to repel slumber and enable good Buddhist priests to keep their vigils. And tea will certainly keep you awake.

COOK FED HIM.

"Say, captain, I wish you'd remove the policeman from my beat and substitute a fellow who likes his beef well done."
"Why, so?"
"Well, the present copper is a bear for rare meat, and our cook wants to please him."

BROWNING AND SUFFRAGE.

Robert Browning was at one period of his life an enthusiastic advocate of votes for women. "He approved of everything that had been done for the higher instruction of women," writes his biographer, Mrs. Satherland Orr, "and would, not very long before his death, have supported their admission to the franchise.
But he was so much displeased by the more recent action of some of the lady advocates of women's rights that, during the last year of his life, after various modifications of opinion, he frankly pledged himself to the opposite view." At one time, it appears, Browning contemplated writing a play in support of the movement. Had this design been carried into effect, Miss Elizabeth Robins would have been anticipated by about twenty years.

WITH ONE HOOK AND EYE.

Some clever and practical dressmaker in Paris has invented a gown made all in one and fastening with one single hook and eye at the back of the waist. This is one of the most ingenious and interesting inventions of the hour. The ordinary dressmaker inflicts upon her clients a great number of fastenings, whether hooks or buttons or patent "clickers," a capital word invented for them by a mere man and intelligible to every woman.

But the new invention dispenses with all but one strong fastening at the back. One is into the gown in half a moment, and out of it almost as speedily. The gratitude of women all over the world is due to the clever inventor.

FOOLISH QUESTION.

George Fitch, the author of the Siwash stories and the motor boat stories, was dining recently and reed birds were on the bill of fare. Reed birds are so small that it is almost necessary to take a microscope to perceive them on the plate.

"George, how do they get these microbes, anyhow; do they shoot 'em, spear 'em or catch them in a net?"
was asked.

"Well," drawled George, "I am surprised that you don't know. They catch them on flypaper, of course."

NEITHER ACCEPTABLE.

Pretty Daughter—So you don't like Jim?

Her Father—No; he appears to be capable of nothing.

Pretty Daughter—But what objection have you to George?

Her Father—Oh, he's worse than Jim. He strikes me as being capable of anything.—Stray Stories.

Speechless For Thanks.

Mena, Ark.—"I find Cardui to be all you represent," writes Mrs. H. B.
York, of this city. "I suffered from womanly ailments, for nearly two years, before I tried Cardui. I have been so relieved since taking it. I cannot say enough in its praise. It has done me a world of good, and I recommend Cardui to all women." Cardui is over 50 years old, and the demand is greater today than ever.
Cardui is the standard, tonic medicine, for women of every age. Would you like to be well and strong? Then take Cardui. Its record shows that it will help you. Begin today. Why wait?

TO MAKE ENGLISH PANCAKES

Breakfast Dish That is Both Wholesome and Acceptable to Most Delicate Stomach.

Separate the yolks and whites of two eggs. Beat the latter to a stiff froth, and set aside in a cool place.
Beat the yolks with two heaping tablespoonfuls of sugar; add, by degrees, six ounces of fine flour and one cupful of cream or milk. Add a pinch of salt. When all is well beaten to a perfectly smooth batter, stir in lightly the whites of the eggs. Put a tablespoonful of good dripping in the frying pan and when it is hot enough
(i. e., when steam rises from the pan) drop in the batter, enough to quite spread over pan, and when it is browned on one side turn and brown the other side. Some cooks manage to turn pancakes by dexterously tossing them in it as they fall, but the use of a broad knife is more to be recommended. When cooked, roll up the pancake, sprinkle with sugar, and put it into the oven till the rest are cooked. Serve piping hot and always send to table with a cut lemon to squeeze over them, as this not only makes the pancakes more tasty but more easily digested. The above quantities will make seven or eight pancakes.

VALUABLE HINT ON SEWING

Little Tip That Will Make Sewing of Lace Around Circular Piece of Cloth Easy.

For sewing lace around a circular piece of cloth, some preparation of the lace is necessary. Here is one woman's way: Roll the lace into a tight roll and sew down the end with a few basting threads. Stand the roll in a shallow dish of warm water just deep enough to cover the edge that is to be sewed on the goods; let it stand in the water three or four minutes;
if left too long the water will soak up and wet the whole roll, which is not desired. When the edge for half an inch or so (on wide lace) or as deep as desired, is well wet, take out of the water and leave in the roll until thoroughly dry. When it is dry and unrolled the edge which was in the water will have shrunk so the lace will curve around and lend itself readily to the round edge of the goods, requiring no furling on, or otherwise would have to be done.

Economical Suggestions.

The best and simplest way of testing silk is to cut off a small piece of the silk and burn it. If it burns out quickly, leaving a clear, crisp, gray ash, the silk is pure; but if it smolders and leaves a heavy reddish-brown ash it has been treated with chemicals and will not wear well.

If a piece of elastic is used to lace up the back of the corsets, instead of the ordinary lace, wearers will find great ease, as the elastic expands freely with every movement of the body, giving greater comfort, also making them wear much longer.

When a dark serge suit or dress has become shiny looking with wear sponge it with hot vinegar and press it in the usual way. No odor of vinegar will remain, the shine will disappear and the articles will be much improved in appearance. The vinegar will leave no stain.

Lentil Omelet.

Cook half a gill of lentils in stock or salted water till tender and drain them. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a saucepan, fry in it a peeled, minced shallot, put in the lentils, and fry for a few minutes. Moisten with two or three tablespoonfuls of brown sauce, season with pepper and salt, and keep hot.

Break six eggs into a basin, beat up well with two tablespoonfuls of milk or cream, season with salt or pepper, and pour into an omelet pan containing about two tablespoonfuls of butter (hot). Stir over the fire with a fork till the mixture begins to set. Spread the cooked lentils over the omelet and fold in the sides. It takes color, a nice golden brown, and turn out carefully into a hot dish. A little tomato sauce may be poured round the base of the dish if liked.

Stocking Holes.

Very often holes are worn in stockings by the points of tacks or even of clinched tacks in the heels of shoes, uncovered by worn linings, also the linings on the sides may be rough and worn. Cut a piece of close-textured goods the right shape and paste over the roughness. A very good and cheap paste is made by mixing a little flour and water on a pie tin and cooking just till the flour color disappears stirring all the time.

Blanquet of Veal.

Remove the bone from a brisket of veal, chop into small pieces and fry.
Brown a chopped onion and a little flour in a saucepan and add the fried veal with a little water, some green onions, parsley, thyme, cloves and garlic. Add half a cup green peas, and when all is thoroughly cooked add the yolks of two eggs beaten in water.

Queen Muffins.

Cream one-half cup butter with one cup sugar; add two eggs well beaten, sift three cups flour with three teaspoons baking powder and add to the other mixture alternately with one scant cup milk. Bake in buttered pans 25 minutes.

Hominy Waffles.

To a pint of cold boiled hominy add one quart of sour milk, two beaten eggs, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, sufficient flour to make a thin batter, and one teaspoon soda.

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love-letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of his military career. This great general will go down to posterity as having accomplished one of the most brilliant feats of arms in the history of the world. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They are a human note that no other work of literature has done in a decade; it is war, it is love, it is literature. You simply can't afford to miss this wonderful story of the Civil War now published for the first time and the freshness of a contemporary happening. These letters will hold your interest from first to last. Fill out the coupon and send it before you forget it.

Vogt's long drive to right field fence Wednesday was the first home run of the season on local grounds.

The Cairo Bulletin does not seem to be much pleased with the home team. Bone head base running, fozzles, naps on bases and wooden-earned stuff are among the terms used.

The games with Paducah scheduled for the first three days of next week have been transferred to Paducah, on account of Paducah's Home Coming Week, and will be returned August 22 and 23. The next games here will be next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with Cairo.

The Moguls, flushed with three straight victories, went to Henderson yesterday for a series of three games. The Henderson team won only one of the three first games.

Outside of the opening game, when 965 were in attendance, the patronage has been poor here. There were small crowds both Wednesday and Thursday.

Sprouse's big sign is not quite high enough to shut off the view of the crowd across the river on the bluff.

The Owensboro team is a well-behaved, gentlemanly set of players. They keep their temper under defeat and there was no scrapping to disgust those who pay to see ball playing.

Umpire Dawkins made a good impression. He uses his voice instead of his hands and makes himself easily heard. He is quick and firm and stands for no back talk.

The Moguls have made a good start and the fans are ready to give them loyal backing.

Bob Taylor Lives,

In the two bright and beautiful books just issued, "Lectures and Best Literary Productions," and "Life and Career" of Senator Robert Love Taylor, handsomely illustrated, you cannot hear again his voice or see the humorous curl of his lips, that convulsed a continent with laughter, but, within the covers of these volumes, are the pictures woven of his wondrous words, and, laughing through their sunny pages, are all of the inimitable stories which he told to the multitudes. In "Life and Career," pens of genius have traced his romantic life from its morning in "Happy Valley," through his young and roseate dreams, through stress and storm, through cheering throngs, and on into the waiting shadows, loved and laurel crowned.

We expect to sell millions of these books. First edition going fast.

For Sale On Friday, May 23, at Annual Grange Sale, I Will Offer Privately the Following Stock:

2 Thoroughbred Double standard Poll Durham bulls, one 2 years old and other 10 months old. Both bulls have a double register, being recorded in Poll Durham and Shorthorn herd books. Both are deep reds.

3 South Down Bucks. One 3-year-old registered buck that has proven one of the best sires I have ever owned. Others are yearlings by the former buck and good individuals.

7 Poland China Pigs, 5 boars and 2 choice gilts, all weighing about 80 lbs. each. These pigs are not of the same litter, but selected from herd. All sired by best Registered Poland China boar I ever owned.

All stock guaranteed breeders and can deliver same to railroad station if purchaser so desires.
